

Young Widowed Support Group

The death of a spouse or partner, at any age, can be an overwhelming loss. However, the loss for a young widow(er) is different. Issues can involve unfulfilled dreams, children, finances, loneliness and much more.

We invite you to attend the newly formed
Young Widowed Support Group
(suggested ages 20-55)

Thursday, June 16, 2011
6:00 pm

Panera Bread Company - 255 E. Ash Avenue

The Young Widowed Support Group can offer:

- Emotional support through your time of grieving and loneliness.
- Hope for a brighter tomorrow, even though that may sound impossible.
- Friendships with others who can cry, laugh and heal with you.
